

REPORT

1. The first Commission of the European Communities (CEC) was established in 1957 by the Treaty of Rome. It was the first of its kind, and its main task was to coordinate the economic policies of the member states.

It was replaced by the European Commission in 1993, which is the main executive body of the European Union.

2. The second Commission of the European Communities (CEC) was established in 1957 by the Treaty of Rome. It was the first of its kind, and its main task was to coordinate the economic policies of the member states.

3.